CERTIFICATES FOR SHARES

4. Certificates representing Shares of the Company shall be in such form as shall be determined by the Board. Such certificates may be under Seal. All certificates for Shares shall be consecutively numbered or otherwise identified and shall specify the Shares to which they relate. The name and address of the person to whom the Shares represented thereby are issued, with the number of Shares and date of issue, shall be entered in the Register of Members. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be cancelled and no new certificate shall be issued until the existing issued certificate(s) representing the Shares to be transferred shall have been surrendered and cancelled. The Board may authorise certificates to be issued with the seal and authorised signature(s) affixed by some method or system of mechanical process.
5. Notwithstanding Article 4 of these Articles, if a certificate for Shares is defaced, lost or destroyed, it may be replaced on payment of a reasonable fee and on such terms (if any) as to evidence, indemnity and to payment of any expenses of the Company in investigating such evidence and preparing such indemnity as the Board shall think fit.

ISSUE OF SHARES

6. (a) Subject to the provisions, if any, in that connection in the Memorandum and to any resolution of Members of the Company in general meeting and without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of existing Shares, the Board may allot, issue, grant options over or otherwise dispose of Shares of the Company (including fractions of a Share) to such persons, at such times and on such other terms as they think proper, provided that no Share shall be issued at a discount except in accordance with the Statute, and PROVIDED ALWAYS that, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in these Articles, the Company shall be precluded from issuing bearer Shares, warrants, coupons or certificates.

(b) Subject to the Statute, so long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, the Company may allot and issue new Shares on such terms as the Board may from time to time determine, to the employees of the Company and/or its Subsidiaries as approved by the Members by way of a Supermajority Resolution, and the number of the shares to be issued, the issuance price, and the terms and conditions of such issuance shall comply with the Applicable Public Company Rules.

(c) So long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, when the Company issues new shares to any employee of the Company and/or its Subsidiaries in compliance with the Applicable Public Company Rules, the Company may, by a Special Resolution, impose transfer restrictions to the effect that such employee shall not subsequently transfer his/her such Shares as allotted and issued by the Company for a period of no more than two (2) years.

7. So long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, where the Company increases its issued share capital by issuing new Shares for cash consideration in Taiwan, the Company shall allocate ten percent (10%) of the total number of such new Shares to be issued, for offering to the public in Taiwan unless it is not necessary or appropriate, as determined by the FSC or other Taiwan authorities, for the Company to conduct the aforementioned public offering. However, if a percentage higher than the aforementioned ten percent (10%) is resolved by an Ordinary Resolution passed at a general meeting to be offered to the public in Taiwan, the percentage determined by such resolution shall prevail. The Company shall allocate ten (10) to fifteen percent (15%) of such new Shares reserved for subscription by employees of the Company and its Subsidiaries.
8. (a) So long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, unless otherwise resolved by the Members in a general meeting by Ordinary Resolution, where the Company proposes to issue new Shares for cash consideration, the Company shall make a public announcement and send notices to Members in order to notify each Member that he/she/it is entitled to exercise a pre-emptive right to purchase his/her/its pro rata portion of the remaining new Shares (after allocation of the public offering portion and the employee subscription portion as set out in Article 7 above) to be issued for cash consideration. The Company shall state in such announcement and notices to the Members that if any Member fails to purchase his/her/its pro rata portion of such remaining new Shares within the prescribed period, such Member shall be deemed to have waived his/her/its pre-emptive right to purchase such new Shares. In the event that Shares held by a Member are insufficient for such Member to exercise the pre-emptive right to purchase one new Share, the entitlement of pre-emptive right of several Members may be combined together for joint purchase of new Shares or for purchase of new Shares in the name of a single Member pursuant to the Applicable Public Company Rules. If the total number of the remaining new Shares to be issued has not been fully subscribed by the Members within the prescribed period, the Company may offer the balance of such unsubscribed Shares to the public or to a specific person or persons in accordance with the Applicable Public Company Rules.
- (b) The pre-emptive right of the Members under Article 8(a) shall not apply if new Shares are issued in any of the following circumstances:
- (i) in connection with a Merger or Consolidation with another company, or pursuant to any Spin-off or reorganization of the Company;
 - (ii) in connection with fulfilling the Company's obligations under warrants and/or options issued by the Company and Shares issued pursuant to Article 101(a), including those issued in accordance with the employee incentive programs under Article 10(a);
 - (iii) in connection with fulfilling the Company's obligations under convertible bonds or corporate bonds issued by the Company which are convertible into Shares or which entitle its holders to acquire Shares;

- (iv) in connection with Shares issued pursuant to a statutory private placement in accordance with Applicable Public Company Rules; and
 - (v) in connection with new fully-paid up Shares issued to the Members as satisfaction of declared dividend pursuant to Article 103, and/or as effecting any capitalisation of any other amount pursuant to Article 105.
- (c) The reservation of new Shares for subscription by employees under Article 7 and the pre-emptive right of the Members under Article 8(a) shall not apply if new Shares are issued in any of the following circumstances:
- (i) in the event where the Company is a surviving company which issues new Shares for a Merger reason, or where the Company is a parent company which issues new Shares for a Merger or Consolidation between any of its subsidiary and other companies;
 - (ii) in the event where all new Shares are issued in connection with the Company being acquired by another company;
 - (iii) in the event where all new Shares are issued in order to acquire shares, business, or assets of other companies;
 - (iv) in circumstances where new Shares are issued as part of a share swap under Applicable Public Company Rules (which is defined as where a company transfers all its issued shares to another company in exchange for shares, cash or other assets in that company as consideration for shareholders of the transferring company; the “Share Swap”);
or
 - (v) in the event where new Shares are issued as part of a Spin-off.
9. The Company shall only issue fully paid-up Shares. Where a subscriber delays payment for Shares, the Company shall fix a period not less than one month, and shall make demand on such subscriber to pay up, and shall declare that in case of default of payment within the stipulated period the subscriber’s rights shall be forfeited. After the Company has made the aforesaid call, subscribers who fail to pay accordingly shall forfeit their rights and the Shares subscribed to by them may be sold by the Company. Under the aforesaid circumstances, the Company may claim damages against the defaulting subscribers.
10. The Company may, upon recommendation by the Board by way of a resolution passed by a simple majority of the Directors present and voting at a duly convened meeting of the Board with at least two-thirds of the total number of the Directors in office, and in accordance with the Applicable Public Company Rules, adopt one or more employee incentive programs pursuant to which the Company may issue Shares, options, warrants or other similar instruments, to employees of the Company and its Subsidiaries. The Company may enter into agreements with employees of the Company and the employees of its Subsidiaries pursuant to the incentive program approved pursuant to this Article, whereby employees may subscribe, within a specific period of time, a specific number of Shares. The terms and conditions of such agreements shall be no less restrictive on the relevant employee than the terms specified in the applicable incentive program. However, options, warrants or other similar instruments issued pursuant to this Article are not transferable except for transmission upon the death of the holder thereof, and so long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, the terms and conditions of such options, warrants or other similar instruments shall comply with the Applicable Public Company Rules and Articles 32 (a) (v) and 38(j).

11. The Company shall maintain a Register of Members, and any such register maintained in respect of listed Shares may be kept by recording the particulars as required by the Statute in a form otherwise than legible if such recording otherwise complies with the laws applicable to and the rules and regulations of the relevant approved stock exchange. Every person whose name is entered as a Member in the Register of Members shall be entitled without payment to receive one certificate for all his/her/its Shares or several certificates for his/her/its Shares in the form as prescribed by the Board. Subject to the provisions of the Statute and Articles 14 and 39 below, if the Board considers it necessary or appropriate, the Company may establish and maintain a principal or branch Register of Members at such location as the Board thinks fit. The Company shall cause to be kept at the place where the principal register is kept a duplicate of any branch register duly entered up from time to time. In addition, so long as the Shares are listed on an ROC Securities Exchange, the Company shall, upon any issue of new Shares, cause such shares to be credited to the accounts of the subscribing Members maintained with the Taiwan Depository & Clearing Corporation pursuant to the Applicable Public Company Rules within thirty (30) days from the date of issuance of such Shares, and shall make a prior public announcement pursuant to the Applicable Public Company Rules.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

12. (a) The instrument of transfer of any Share shall be in any usual or common form or such other form as the Board may, in their absolute discretion, approve and be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and if so required by the Board, shall also be executed by or on behalf of the transferee and shall be accompanied by the certificates (if any) for the Shares to which the transfer relates and such other evidence as the Board may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer. The transferor shall be deemed to remain a Member until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register of Members in respect of the relevant Shares.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Articles, title to listed Shares may be evidenced and transferred in accordance with the laws applying to and the rules and regulations of the relevant approved stock exchange that are or shall be applicable to such listed Shares.
13. The registration of transfers may be suspended when the Register of Members is closed for transfers in accordance with Article 24.
14. For so long as the Shares are listed on one of the ROC Securities Exchanges, the Company shall keep and maintain a branch Register of Members in Taiwan.

REDEMPTION, PURCHASE, SURRENDER AND TREASURY SHARES

15. (a) Subject to the provisions of the Statute and the Memorandum, Shares may be issued on the terms that they are, or at the option of the Company or the holder are, redeemable on such terms and in such manner as the Company may by Special Resolution determine before the issue of such Shares.

(b) Subject to the provisions of the Statute, the Memorandum and any rights conferred on the holders of any Class of Shares, the Company may purchase its own Shares (including fractions of a Share), including any redeemable Shares, provided that the manner and terms of purchase have first been authorised by the Company in general meeting by an Ordinary Resolution and may make payment therefor in any manner authorised by the Statute, including out of capital. The number of Shares to be purchased and cancelled by the Company pursuant to such Ordinary Resolution shall be pro rata among the Members in proportion to the number of Shares held by each Member.

- (c) Subject to the Statute and the Applicable Public Company Rules, the consideration payable by the Company to any Member in respect of a purchase of Shares by the Company may be paid in cash or be satisfied by the transfer of any assets. Where the consideration payable by the Company to a Member in respect of a purchase of Shares by the Company is to be satisfied by the transfer of any assets ("Non-Cash Consideration"), the Board shall, prior to the general meeting approving the purchase of Shares, (i) conduct a valuation on the said assets and such valuation must be audited and certified by an accountant admitted to practice in the ROC and (ii) seek specific consent from such Member approving the Non-Cash Consideration and must receive his/her/its written consent prior to the general meeting approving the purchase of Shares. In the event that written consent is not received from a Member in respect of Non-Cash Consideration, the Company shall pay cash consideration to such Member in respect of the purchase of Shares from such Member. The assets to be transferred to Members by the Company in respect of a purchase of Shares and the audited valuation of such assets shall be approved by an Ordinary Resolution at the same general meeting approving the purchase of Shares.
 - (d) Notwithstanding the foregoing and subject to the provisions of the Statute, so long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, the Company may purchase its Shares listed and traded on such ROC Securities Exchange in accordance with the Applicable Public Company Rules if such purchase is authorised by the Board by way of a resolution passed by a simple majority of the Directors at a duly convened meeting of the Board except that the quorum necessary for a Board meeting considering such on-market repurchases shall be at least two-thirds of the total number of the Directors in office, and the Board shall report the execution status of such repurchase to the Members at the next general meeting.
 - (e) No Share may be redeemed or purchased unless it is fully paid-up.
 - (f) The Company may accept the surrender for no consideration of any fully paid Share (including a redeemable Share) unless, as a result of the surrender, there would no longer be any issued Shares of the Company other than shares held as treasury shares.
 - (g) The Company is authorised to hold treasury Shares in accordance with the Statute.
 - (h) The Board may classify as treasury shares any of the Shares that it purchases or redeems, or any shares surrendered to it, in accordance with the Statute.
 - (i) Shares held by the Company as treasury shares shall continue to be classified as treasury shares until such Shares are either cancelled or transferred in accordance with the Statute.
 - (j) A treasury share shall not be counted in determining the total number of issued shares at any given time, whether for the purposes of these Articles or the Statute.
16. (a) So long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, any transfer by the Company of any treasury share purchased in accordance with Article 15 (b) to any employee of the Company and/or its Subsidiaries for less than the average actual purchase or redemption price, shall require the prior approval of the Members in general meeting by way of a Special Resolution. A summary of the following matters relating to the Company's transfer of treasury shares to employees of the Company and/or its Subsidiaries must be specified in the notice of the general meeting where such authorisation is sought:
- (i) the proposed transfer price, the discount rate, the bases of calculations and the reasonableness thereof;
 - (ii) the number of treasury shares to be transferred, and the purpose and the reasonableness of the proposed transfer;

- (iii) qualifications of the employees, and the number of treasury shares they may purchase; and
 - (iv) impact on shareholders' equity, such as additional expenses incurred, reduction of the Company's earnings per share, and the financial burdens on the Company resulting from transferring treasury shares to employees at less than the average actual purchase or redemption price.
- (b) So long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, the aggregate number of treasury shares transferred to employees in accordance with Article 16 (a) may not exceed five (5) percent of the total issued Shares, and the aggregate number of shares to any single employee may not exceed 0.5 percent of the total issued Shares, subject to the Applicable Public Company Rules (including Regulations Governing Share Repurchase by Exchange-Listed and OTC-Listed Companies promulgated by FSC).
- (c) So long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, when the Company transfers its treasury shares purchased in accordance with Article 15 (b) to any employee of the Company and/or its Subsidiaries, the Company may enter into a contract with such employee for the purpose of restricting such employee's subsequent transfers of his/her Shares (so transferred to him/her by the Company) for a period of no more than two (2) years.

VARIATION OF RIGHTS OF SHARES

17. (a) If at any time the Share capital of the Company is divided into different Classes of Shares, the rights attached to any Class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the Shares of that Class) may, whether or not the Company is being wound up, be varied with the sanction of a Special Resolution passed at a general meeting of the holders of Shares of that Class. The provisions of these Articles relating to general meetings shall apply to every such general meeting of the holders of a Class of Shares.
- (b) Upon the creation of any new Class of Shares or alteration of the rights of existing Class of Shares (being ordinary shares), the Company shall amend the Memorandum and/or these Articles to state the rights and obligations of such Classes of Shares into these Articles.
18. The rights conferred upon the holders of the Shares of any Class issued with preferred or other rights shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the Shares of that Class, be deemed to be varied by the creation, allotment or issue of further Shares ranking pari passu therewith or subsequent to them or by the redemption or purchase of Shares of any Class by the Company.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

19. In case of the death of a Member, the survivor or survivors where the deceased Member was a joint holder, and the legal personal representatives of the deceased Member where the deceased Member was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to the deceased Member's interest in the Shares, but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of any such deceased holder from any liability in respect of any Shares which had been held by him/her solely or jointly with other persons.
20. (a) Any person becoming entitled to a Share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy or liquidation or dissolution of a Member (or in any other way other than by transfer) may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be required by the Board and subject as hereinafter provided, elect either to be registered himself/herself/itself as holder of the Share or to make such transfer of the Share to such other person nominated by him/her/it as the deceased or bankrupt person could have made and to have such person registered as the transferee thereof, but the Board shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or, in accordance with Article 24, suspend, registration of the transfer as it would have had in the case of a transfer of the Share by that Member before his/her death or bankruptcy as the case may be.

- (b) If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered himself/herself/itself as holder he/she/it shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him/her/it stating that he/she/it elects to be so registered.
21. A person becoming entitled to a Share by reason of the death or bankruptcy or liquidation or dissolution of a Member (or in any other case than by transfer) shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he/she/it would be entitled if he/she/it were the registered holder of the Share, except that he/she/it shall not, before being registered as a Member in respect of the Share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by the Shares in relation to meetings of the Company PROVIDED HOWEVER that the Board may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself/herself/itself or to transfer the Share and if the notice is not complied with within ninety (90) days after the notice is deemed to be received by the relevant person in accordance with these Articles the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other monies payable in respect of the Share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.
22. (a) The Company shall be entitled to treat the registered holder of any Share as the absolute owner thereof and accordingly shall not be bound to recognise any equitable claim or other claim to, or interest in, such share on the part of any other person.
- (b) No person shall be entitled to recognition by the Company as holding any Share upon any trust and the Company shall not be bound by, or be compelled in any way to recognise, (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or any other right in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety of the share in the holder.

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL & CHANGE OF LOCATION OF REGISTERED OFFICE

23. (a) Subject to and in so far as permitted by the provisions of the Statute, the Company may from time to time by Ordinary Resolution:
- (i) increase its share capital by the creation of new Shares of such amount, to be divided into Shares of such Class or Classes and of such amounts in such currency as the resolution shall prescribe;
 - (ii) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into Shares of larger or smaller amount than its existing Shares;
 - (iii) divide its unissued Shares into several Classes and (without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of existing Shares) attach thereto respectively any preferential, deferred, qualified or special rights, privileges or conditions;
 - (iv) sub-divide its Shares or any of them into Shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the Memorandum of Association;
 - (v) cancel any shares which at the date of the passing of the resolution have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person, and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the Shares so cancelled;
 - (vi) make provision for the allotment and issue of Shares which do not carry any voting rights; and

(vii) change the currency of denomination of its share capital.

PROVIDED THAT notwithstanding the foregoing, for so long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, the currency of denomination of the share capital of the Company shall be New Taiwan Dollar (NTD) and the par value of each Share shall be NTD10.

- (b) The Company may from time to time, by Special Resolution and subject to compliance with the provisions of the Statute, reduce its share capital or share premium account or capital redemption reserve or other undistributed reserve in any manner permitted by law.
- (c) On any consolidation or division of fully paid Shares into Shares under paragraph (a) of this Article, the Board may settle any difficulty which may arise as it thinks expedient and in particular (but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) may as between the holders of Shares to be consolidated determine which particular Shares are to be consolidated into a consolidated Share, and if it shall happen that any person shall become entitled to fractions of a Share or Shares, such fractions may be sold by some person appointed by the Board for that purpose and the person so appointed may transfer the Shares so sold to the purchaser thereof and the validity of such transfer shall not be questioned, and so that the net proceeds of such sale (after deduction of the expenses of such sale) may either be distributed among the persons who would have been entitled to the fraction or fractions of a Share or Shares ratably in accordance with their rights and interest or may be paid to the Company for the Company's benefit;
- (d) Subject to the provisions of the Statute, the Company may by resolution of the Board change the location of its registered office.

CLOSURE OF REGISTER OF MEMBER AND RECORD DATE

- 24. For purpose of determining Members entitled to receive notice of or to vote at any meeting of Members or any adjournment thereof, or Members entitled to receive payment of any dividend, or in order to make a determination as to the Members of the Company for any other proper purpose, the Board may determine that the Register of Members shall be closed for transfers for any period. So long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, the Register of Members may only be closed in accordance with Applicable Public Company Rules.
- 25. To the extent required by Applicable Public Company Rules, in lieu of or apart from closing the Register of Members, the Board may fix in advance one or more dates as the record dates for determining the Members entitled to receive notice of or to vote at a meeting of the Members, or for the purpose of determining the Members entitled to receive payment of any dividend.

GENERAL MEETING

- 26. The Company may in each year hold a general meeting as its annual general meeting, PROVIDED HOWEVER THAT, for so long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, an annual general meeting shall be held within six (6) months following the end of each fiscal year of the Company and it shall be specified as such meeting in the notice convening the same. Unless otherwise provided in these Articles, all general meetings shall be convened by the Board. For so long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, the Board or anyone who has authority to convene a general meeting may request the Company or the professional securities agent licensed in Taiwan engaged by the Company to provide the list of Members entitled to vote at such general meeting.
- 27. (a) The general meetings shall be held at such time and place determined by the Board. The general meetings may be held by means of videoconference or other methods which are compliant with the Applicable Public Company Rules or approved by the competent authority of the Company Act of the ROC.

(b) When the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, the Company shall comply with the conditions, operation procedures and other compliance requirements regarding videoconferencing required by the Applicable Public Company Rules.

(c) The participation by the Members in a meeting through videoconference or other method which is compliant with the preceding paragraph shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

(d) Unless otherwise provided by the Statute and unless otherwise determined by the Board, all general meetings held physically shall be in Taiwan. So long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, if the Board resolves to hold a physical general meeting outside Taiwan, the Company shall apply for the approval of the applicable ROC Securities Exchange within two (2) days after the Board passes such resolution. Where a general meeting is to be held outside Taiwan, so long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, the Company shall engage a professional securities agent licensed in Taiwan to be present at the such general meeting and to handle the administration of such general meeting, including without limitation, the handling of the voting of proxies submitted by Members.

28. General meetings other than annual general meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings. The Board may convene an extraordinary general meeting of the Company whenever they determine that such a meeting is necessary in their absolute discretion.

29. (a) The Board shall, upon a Members' requisition, forthwith proceed to convene an extraordinary general meeting of the Company. For the purpose of these Articles, a "Members' requisition" is a requisition of one or more Member(s) of the Company holding in the aggregate at the date of deposit of the requisition not less than three percent (3%) of the total number of issued Shares at the time of requisition and whose Shares shall have been held continuously by such Member(s) for at least one (1) year.

(b) One or more Member(s) of the Company holding in the aggregate more than half of the total number of issued Shares and whose Shares shall have been held continuously by such Member(s) for at least three (3) months, may convene an extraordinary general meeting of the Company. The holding period and the respective numbers of Shares held by such Members shall be determined as of the first day of the closure period of the Register of Members as required in Article 24.

(c) In the event the Board fails or becomes unable to convene a general meeting, the Audit Committee, acting in the best interests of the Company and based on its determination of necessity, may convene a general meeting.

30. The requisition from the Member(s) must be in writing and shall express the purpose of the extraordinary general meeting to be requisitioned and must be signed by the requisitioner(s) and deposited at the Registered Office. The requisition may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one or more requisitionists.

31. If the Board does not within fifteen (15) days from the date of deposit of the requisition despatch the notice to convene an extraordinary general meeting, the requisitioner(s) may themselves convene the extraordinary general meeting. An extraordinary general meeting convened as aforesaid by requisitioner(s) shall be convened and held in the same manner as nearly as possible in which general meetings are convened and held by the Board.

32. (a) Subject to the Statute and without prejudice to other provisions of these Articles as regards the matters to be dealt with by Special Resolution, the Company may from time to time by Special Resolution:

(i) change its name;

- (ii) alter or add to these Articles;
 - (iii) alter or add to the Memorandum with respect to any objects, powers or other matters specified therein;
 - (iv) issue securities, including options, warrants and convertible bonds, where such issuance will be pursuant to a statutory private placement to qualified investors in Taiwan in accordance with Applicable Public Company Rules; or
 - (v) issue employee stock warrants that are not subject to any exercise price restriction in accordance with Applicable Public Company Rules.
- (b) Subject to the Statute, the Company may, by a Special Resolution, effect a Merger or a Consolidation of the Company in accordance with the Statute.
- (c) The Company may, by a resolution passed by Members representing two-thirds or more of the total issued Shares of the Company voting as a single class at a general meeting, participate in a Spin-off, a transfer of all of the Company's assets and liabilities, or any scheme of arrangement pursuant to which all issued Shares will be exchanged or converted into shares in another company (each a "Reorganising Transaction"), resulting in the Company's mandatory de-listing from the applicable ROC Securities Exchange, and the company emerging from the completion of such Reorganising Transaction vested with all assets and liabilities of the Company, whether newly incorporated or continually existed, is not listed in any ROC Securities Exchange.
33. Subject to the Statute and Article 32(b), the Company may from time to time by Supermajority Resolution:
- (a) resolve that any particular declared dividend be satisfied in part by the issuance of new Shares credited as fully paid to the Members pursuant to Article 103;
 - (b) effect any capitalisation of any other amount pursuant to Article 105 hereof;
 - (c) effect any Spin-off of the Company;
 - (d) enter into, amend, or terminate any agreement for lease of the Company's whole business, or for delegation of the operation, or for frequent joint operation with others;
 - (e) transfer all or a material part of its business or assets;
 - (f) acquire or assume all businesses or assets of another person which will have a material effect on the Company's business operation; or
 - (g) effect any Share Swap.
34. Subject to the Statute, the Company may by Special Resolution resolve to wind up the Company voluntarily or by Ordinary Resolution resolve to wind up the Company voluntarily because the Company is unable to pay its debt as they fall due.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

35. For so long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, at least thirty (30) days' notice of an annual general meeting shall be given to each Member, stating the date, place and time at which the meeting is to be held and the general nature of business to be conducted at the meeting. For so long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, at least fifteen (15) days' notice of an extraordinary general meeting shall be given to each Member, stating the date, place and time at which the meeting is to be held and the general nature of the business to be considered at the meeting. All notices convening general meetings of the Company shall be exclusive of the day on which it is given or deemed to be given and the day for which it is served.

36. A general meeting of the Company shall, notwithstanding that it is called on shorter notice than that specified in these Articles, be deemed to have been properly called if it is so agreed by all the Members having the right to attend and vote at an annual general meeting or an extraordinary general meeting (as the case may be).
37. So long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, the Company shall send materials as required by the Applicable Public Company Rules (including written ballots if the Members may exercise their votes by means of written ballots at general meetings) relating to the matters to be discussed in each meeting together with the notice convening the general meeting in accordance with Article 35 hereof and shall transmit the same via the Market Observation Post System. The Board shall prepare a meeting handbook for the relevant general meeting and supplemental materials in accordance with the Applicable Public Company Rules, which will be sent to or made available to all Members and shall be transmitted to the Market Observation Post System in accordance with Applicable Public Company Rules, at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the date of the annual general meeting, and at least fifteen (15) days prior to the date of an extraordinary general meeting. However, in the case of the paid-in capital of the Company reaching NT$10 billion or more as of the last day of the most recent fiscal year, or the total shareholding owned by foreign investors and Mainland Chinese investors reached 30% or more as recorded in the Register of Members, at the time of holding the annual general meeting in the most recent fiscal year, the Company shall upload the aforesaid electronic file at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of annual general meeting.
38. In the event that any of the following matters is to be considered at a general meeting, the notice of the general meeting shall contain a summary of the material issues to be discussed in respect of these matters, and for so long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, the summary may be published on the website designated by FSC or the Company, and the direct web-link containing such summary shall be specified in the notice of the general meeting:
- (a) election or removal of Directors;
 - (b) alteration of the Memorandum and/or these Articles; and
 - (c) (i) dissolution, Merger, Consolidation, Share Swap or Spin-off, (ii) the entry into, any changes to or termination of any contract for lease of the Company's whole business, entrusted business or frequent joint venture of the Company with others, (iii) transfer of the whole or any material part of the business or assets of the Company, (iv) acceptance of the transfer of the whole business or assets from another person which will have a material effect on the business operation of the Company;
 - (d) ratification of an action of Director(s) who is/ are engaged in business for him/herself or on behalf of another person, such business being within the scope of the business of the Company;
 - (e) payment of dividends to Members to be satisfied in whole or in part by way of issuance of new Shares;
 - (f) capitalization of the Company's share premium account and/or a distributable reserve of the Company (including any contributed surplus account which are distributable) subject to the Statute and these Articles in the form of an allotment and issue of new Shares credited as fully paid to Members on a pro-rata basis based on their respective shareholding in the Company;
 - (g) private placement of any equity securities to be issued by the Company;

- (h) reduction of share capital;
- (i) application with FSC for termination of the “public company” status registration under the Applicable Public Company Rules; and
- (j) issue employee stock warrants that are not subject to any exercise price restriction under the Applicable Public Company Rules.

The matters set out in Article 38(a) to Article 38(j) (inclusive) and Article 16 (a) shall not be raised as an ad hoc motion at any general meeting of the Company.

- 39. So long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, the Board shall keep printed copies of the Memorandum, these Articles, minutes of general meetings, financial statements, the branch Register of Members in Taiwan, and the counterfoil of any corporate bonds issued by the Company at the office of the Company’s branch share registrar in Taiwan and the Company’s securities agent located in Taiwan unless electronic copies of the aforementioned documents may be kept pursuant to the Applicable Public Company Rules. From time to time, by submitting document(s) evidencing his/her interests involved and indicating the designated scope of the inspection, the Members may inspect, review or make copies of the aforementioned documents, and the Company shall instruct its Taiwan-licensed securities agent to provide copies of such documents.
- 40. So long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, the Company shall make copies of all statements and records prepared by the Board and the report prepared by the Independent Directors available at the office of its branch share registrar and its securities agent located in Taiwan in accordance with Applicable Public Company Rules. Members may, at their own expenses, inspect, review or copy the aforementioned documents from time to time and such Members may be accompanied by their advisors, attorneys or certified public accountants for the purpose of such inspection and review.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 41. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of Members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business and is maintained throughout the meeting. Unless otherwise provided for in these Articles, two or more Members present in person and representing in person or by proxy, more than one-half of the total issued Shares, shall constitute a quorum for any general meeting.
- 42. So long as the Shares are or listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, the Company shall comply with the relevant Applicable Public Company Rules whereby following the end of each fiscal year of the Company, the Board shall table at an annual general meeting of the Company, business reports, financial statements and the Board’s proposals for allocation and distribution of profits or losses for approval or ratification (as the case may be) by the Members as required by the Applicable Public Company Rules. In accordance with the Applicable Public Company Rules, the Board shall, after approval or ratification by the Members at the annual general meeting, distribute or make public announcement on the Market Observation Post System to each Member copies of the approved or ratified financial statements, reports and proposals together with the Company’s resolutions which approved or ratified the allocation and distribution of profits or loss.
- 43. A resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a poll. No resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided by a show of hands.
- 44. Subject to all applicable laws, nothing in these Articles shall prevent any Member from initiating proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction for an appropriate remedy in connection with improper convening of any general meeting or improper passing of any resolution. The Taipei District Court, ROC, may be the court of first instance for adjudicating any disputes arising out of the foregoing.
- 45. Unless otherwise expressly required by the Statute, the Memorandum or these Articles, any matter presented for resolution, approval, confirmation or adoption by the Members at any general meeting may be passed by an Ordinary Resolution.

46. Provided that the Shares are not listed on any ROC Securities Exchange,
- (a) a resolution (including a Special Resolution) in writing (in one or more counterparts) signed by all Members for the time being entitled to receive notice of and to attend and vote at general meetings (or being corporations by their duly authorised representatives) shall be as valid and effective as if the same had been passed at a general meeting of the Company duly convened and held; and
 - (b) any such resolution in writing shall be deemed to have been passed at a general meeting held on the date on which it was signed by the last person to sign, and where the resolution states a date as being the date of his signature thereof by any Member the statement shall be prima facie evidence that it was signed by him on that date.
47. So long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, one or more Members holding one percent (1%) or more of the total issued Shares immediately prior to the relevant period during which the Register of Members is closed for transfers, may in writing or electronically submit to the Company a resolution for consideration and, if appropriate, approval at an annual general meeting; nothing in these Articles shall be construed to compel the Board to reject any proposal relating to the improvement of the Company's corporate social responsibility or public interests. Such proposals shall not be included in the agenda if:
- (a) the proposing Member(s) hold(s) less than one percent (1%) of the total issued Shares as at the relevant date in accordance with this Article;
 - (b) the matter proposed to be discussed may not be resolved at an annual general meeting;
 - (c) the proposing Member has made more than three hundred (300) words proposal for consideration or more than one proposal for consideration at the same annual general meeting; or
 - (d) the proposal is received by the Company after the dispatch of the notice of the annual general meeting.
48. The chairman of the Board (if any) shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the Company, or if there is no such chairman, or if he/she shall not be present within fifteen (15) minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting, or is unwilling to act, the Directors present shall elect one of their number to be chairman of the general meeting. If at any general meeting no Director is willing to act as chairman or if no Director is present within fifteen (15) minutes after the time appointed for the holding the meeting, the Members present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the general meeting.
49. (a) Unless otherwise expressly provided herein, if a quorum is not present by the time appointed for the general meeting, the chairman may adjourn the commencement of the general meeting to a later time, but no more than one (1) hour in all circumstances. If the commencement of the general meeting has been adjourned twice and a quorum is still not present, then the general meeting shall be adjourned to such other day and at such other time and place as the Board may determine. The Board (or the Secretary duly authorised by the Board) may adjourn any general meeting called in accordance with the provisions of these Articles (other than a meeting requisitioned under these Articles) provided that notice of adjournment is given to each Member. The Board may determine the date, time and place for the adjourned meeting as it deems appropriate and shall give fresh notice of the date, time and place for the adjourned meeting to each Member in accordance with the provisions of these Articles, PROVIDED THAT for so long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, such adjournment shall also comply with the Applicable Public Company Rules.
- (b) The chairman may, with the consent of any general meeting duly constituted hereunder, and shall if so directed by the general meeting, adjourn the general meeting from time to time and from place to place as the meeting shall determine, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business which might have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. No notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at any adjourned meeting needs to be given nor shall any Member be entitled to any such notice.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

50. (a) Subject to the Statute, these Articles, and any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any Class or Classes of Shares, every Member who is present at a general meeting, either in person (or in the case of a Member being a corporation, by its authorised representative) or by proxy, shall have one vote for every Share of which he/she/it is the holder.
- (b) So long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, if a Member holding more than one Share does not cast all his votes in the same way, such Member must do so in accordance with the Applicable Public Company Rules.
51. Votes may be cast either personally or by proxy. A Member may appoint only one proxy and only under one instrument to attend and vote at each meeting. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deposited at the Registered Office or the office of the Company's FSC-recognised shareholders' service agent (as the term is defined under the Applicable Public Company Rules) in the ROC or at such other place as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the general meeting, or in any instrument appointing a proxy sent out by the Company not less than five days before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote. Where more than one instrument to appoint a proxy are received from the same Member by the Company, the first instrument received shall prevail, unless an explicit written statement is made by the relevant Member to revoke the previous proxy in the later-received instrument.
52. (a) Subject to the Statute and all applicable law, the Board may determine that Members not attending and voting at a general meeting in person or by proxy may exercise their voting right either by means of electronic transmission. For the avoidance of doubt, Members voting in the manner mentioned above shall, for purposes of these Articles and the Statute, be deemed to have appointed the FSC-recognised shareholders' service agent (as the term is defined under the Applicable Public Company Rules) which has been engaged by the Company at the date of the notice convening the general meeting, or the chairman of the general meeting if no such agent is engaged, as their proxy to vote their shares at the general meeting in the manner directed by the written ballot or electronic transmission. If the shareholders' service agent (or the chairman, as the case may be) does not vote in the manner directed by the written ballots or the electronic transmissions, then such proxy votes shall not be regarded as valid votes cast.
- (b) The shareholders' service agent (or the chairman, as the case may be), as proxy, shall not have the power to exercise the voting rights of such Members with respect to any matters not specifically indicated in the written ballot or electronic transmission and/or with respect to any amendment to resolution(s) proposed at the general meeting. Subject to the Statute and all applicable law, a Member who exercises his/her/its voting right at a general meeting by means of a written ballot or of electronic transmission shall be deemed present by proxy at such general meeting, but any Member voting in such manner shall not be entitled to notice of, and the right to vote in regard to, any ad hoc motion or amendment to the items set out in the notice convening the general meeting to be resolved at the said general meeting. Subject to the Statute and all applicable law, for the purposes of clarification, all Members voting in such manner shall be deemed to have waived notice of, and the right to vote in regard to, any ad hoc motion or amendment to the items set out in the notice convening the general meeting to be resolved at the said general meeting.

- (c) In the event that a Member exercises his/her/its voting power by means of a written ballot or by means of electronic transmission and has also authorised a proxy to attend a general meeting, then the voting power exercised by the proxy at the general meeting shall prevail.
53. Subject to the Statute and all applicable law, in the event any Member who has exercised his/her/its voting rights by means of a written ballot or by means of electronic transmission (as applicable) pursuant to Article 52 intends to attend the general meeting physically in person or by authorised representative if the Member is a corporation, he/she/it shall, at least two (2) days prior to the commencement of the general meeting, deposit at the Registered Office or at the office of the securities agent engaged by the Company in the ROC so long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, or at such other place as is specified in the notice convening the meeting a separate notice to rescind and revoke his/her/its votes cast by way of such written ballot or electronic transmission (as applicable) (for the purposes of this Article only, the “Previous Voting”), failing which, the Member shall be deemed to have waived his/her/its right to attend and vote at the relevant general meeting in person, the deemed appointment of the shareholders’ service agent (or the chairman of the general meeting, as the case may be) by the Members as the proxy and Previous Voting shall remain valid and the Company shall not count any votes cast by such Member physically at the relevant general meeting. Subject to the Statute and all applicable law, votes by means of written ballot or electronic transmission shall be valid unless the relevant Member revokes the Previous Voting before the prescribed time.
54. In the case of joint holders of Shares, such joint holders shall appoint a representative among them to exercise the votes of their Shares and shall notify the Company of such appointment. If no such representative is appointed by such joint holders of record, then the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person (or in case of a corporation, by authorised representative) or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders, and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the Register of Members.
55. (a) No Member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless he/she/it is registered as a Member of the Company on the record date for such general meeting. A Member of unsound mind, or in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction in lunacy, may vote by his committee, receiver, curator bonis, or other person in the nature of a committee, receiver or curator bonis appointed by that court, and any such committee receiver, curator bonis or other persons may, subject to all applicable laws, vote by proxy in accordance with these Articles.
- (b) Subject to the Statutes, so long as the Shares are listed in any ROC Securities Exchange, when a Director pledges more than one-half of the Shares which he/she/it held at the moment when he/she/it was elected as a Director, such Director shall refrain from exercising the votes with respect to the Shares pledged exceeding the one-half threshold, and the votes of the Shares pledged exceeding the one-half threshold shall not be counted in the total number of votes of Member present at the meeting and such Shares may not be counted in determining the quorum of the general meeting.

SHARES WHICH ARE NOT ENTITLED TO VOTE

56. Shares set out below shall not be voted at any general meeting and shall not be counted into the total number of issued Shares for determining the quorum of the general meeting:
- (a) Shares that are directly or indirectly owned by the Company;
- (b) Shares that are owned by its Subsidiary, one-half or more of the total number of issued voting shares or paid-up capital of that Subsidiary is directly or indirectly owned by the Company; and

(c) Shares that are owned by a company, one-half or more of the total number of issued voting shares or paid-up capital of such a company is directly or indirectly owned by the Company, its Subsidiaries or the holding company(ies) to which the Company is a Subsidiary.

57. So long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, if a Member who has a personal interest in respect of any matter proposed for consideration and, if appropriate, approval at a general meeting, and such interest is in conflict with and may harm the interests of the Company, such Member shall abstain from voting in respect of all his/her/its Shares which such Member would otherwise be entitled to vote in person or by proxy (or by corporate representative, if such Member is a corporation) with respect to the said matter, and the votes cast in respect of the Shares held by such Members shall not be counted, but such Members and their Shares may be counted in determining the quorum of the general meeting. The aforementioned Member shall also not vote on behalf of any other Member with respect to that same matter.

DISSENTING MEMBERS' APPRAISAL RIGHT

58. (a) In the event any of the following resolutions is passed at a general meeting, any Member who has notified the Company in writing of his objection to such a resolution prior to the date of the relevant general meeting and has raised again his/her/its objection at the general meeting, may request the Company to buy back all of his/her/its Shares at the then prevailing fair value:

(a) a resolution approving the Company acquiring shares, business or assets of another company in exchange for shares, cash or other assets from the Company under the Applicable Public Company Rules ("Acquisition"), or a resolution approving Share Swap;

(b) a resolution approving the entry into by the Company, any amendments to or termination of any lease of all of the Company's business, delegation of the operation or frequent joint operation (which expression shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Applicable Public Company Rules) of the Company with others;

(c) a resolution approving the transfer by the Company of all or a material part of its business or assets, provided that this shall not apply where such transfer is to be made pursuant to the dissolution of the Company; or

(d) a resolution approving the acquisition by the Company of all of the business or assets from another person, which will have a material effect on the Company's business operations.

59. (a) Subject to compliance with the Statute, in the event of a Spin-off of any part of the Company's business or if the Company is involved in any Merger or Consolidation with any other company, any Member who has abstained from voting on such matter (or had voted against such matter) and has expressed his/her/its dissent thereof in writing before (in the case of a Merger or Consolidation) or during the relevant general meeting at which such matter is considered and approved, may request the Company to buy back all of his/her/its Shares at the then prevailing fair value.

(b) Any Member who makes a request under Article 58 or paragraph (a) of this Article shall make it in writing within 20 days from the date the resolution of the general meeting was made and shall specify the price for buying back. If the Company and such Member reach an agreement as to the buy back price, the Company shall pay for the Shares within 90 days from the date the resolution of the general meeting was made. In the absence of agreement, the Company shall pay the fair value it has determined to the dissenting Member within 90 days since the date the resolution of the general meeting was made. If the Company does not make such payment, the Company shall be deemed to have agreed to the price proposed by such Member.

(c) In the event of paragraph (a) of Article 58 and paragraph (a) of this Article, Member who has expressed his/her/its dissent thereof in writing or verbally with a record before or during the general meeting, and thus has abstained from voting on or voted against such matter at the general meeting, may request the Company to buy back all of their Share in accordance with such paragraph. when the Members and the Company cannot reach agreements about the purchase price within 60 days since the date of the resolution of the general meeting was made, the Company shall apply to the court for a ruling on the fair value in respect of all dissenting Members within 30 days after that 60-day duration has expired, and the Taipei District Court, ROC, may be the court of first instance for this matter.

(d) In the event Members abstained from voting according to the preceding paragraph, the shares represented by such Member shall not be counted in the number of votes of Members present at that meeting.

PROXIES AND SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

60. Unless otherwise provided in these Articles, the instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing and shall be executed under the hand of the appointor or of his/her attorney duly authorised in writing, or, if the appointor is a corporation under the hand of an officer or attorney duly authorised in that behalf. A Member shall serve such instrument of proxy to the Company no later than five (5) days prior to the date of the general meeting. In case two or more instruments of proxy are received from one Member, the first one received by the Company shall prevail; unless such Member explicitly revoke the previous instrument of proxy in the subsequent instrument of proxy. A proxy need not be a Member of the Company. Unless otherwise provided in these Articles, the instrument appointing a proxy shall be deposited at the Registered Office, or, at the office of the securities agent engaged by the Company in the ROC so long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, or at such other place, in such manner as is specified in the notice convening the meeting.
61. (a) Subject to the Applicable Public Company Rules, except for (i) trust enterprises organized under the laws of the ROC, (ii) a shareholders' service agent (as the term is defined under the Applicable Public Company Rules) recognised by the FSC or (iii) a shareholders' service agent (or the chairman of the general meeting) who is deemed appointed as proxy under Article 52 of these Articles, in the event a person has been appointed as the proxy for two or more Members, the sum of Shares entitled to vote as represented by such proxy shall be no more than three percent (3%) of the total issued Shares immediately prior to the relevant date of closure of the Register of Members for purposes of determining Members entitled to vote at the general meeting; any vote in respect of the portion in excess of such three percent threshold shall not be counted.
- (b) Unless otherwise provided in these Articles, the instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the form approved by the Company and be expressed to be for a particular meeting and the adjourned meeting(s) thereof. The form of proxy shall include at least the following information: (a) instructions on how to complete the form, (b) the matters to be voted upon by the proxy, and (c) basic identification information relating to the relevant Member appointing the proxy, his/her/its proxy and the Solicitor (if any). The form of proxy shall be provided to the Members together with the notice for the relevant general meeting, and such notice and proxy materials shall be distributed to all Members on the same day.
- (c) In the event any Member who has served the Company with a proxy instrument intends to attend general meetings in person or exercise his/her/its voting power by means of written ballots or electronic transmissions, he/she/it shall, at least two days prior to the general meeting, serve a separate declaration of intention to revoke his/her/its appointment of proxy. Votes cast by proxy shall be valid if the relevant Member fails to revoke the appointment of proxy before the time prescribed by the Applicable Public Company Rules.
- (d) Unless otherwise provided in these Articles, so long as the Shares are listed on an ROC Securities Exchange, all matters concerning proxies and/or the solicitation of instruments of proxies by a Solicitor relating to the Shares shall comply with these Articles and ROC's Rules Governing the Use of Proxies for Attendance at Member Meetings of Public

Companies and all other applicable laws and regulations, including but without limitation, the Applicable Public Company Rules, for the time being whether or not expressly provided for in these Articles.

DIRECTORS

62. There shall be a Board consisting of not less than seven (7) Directors and no more than nine (9) Directors, each of whom shall be appointed to a term of office of three (3) years. The exact number of the Directors may be fixed from time to time by the Board within the aforementioned range. Retiring Directors may be eligible for re-election. The initial Directors of the Company shall be elected or appointed in writing by, or appointed by a resolution of, the subscribers of the Memorandum or a majority of them.
63. So long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, unless otherwise approved by one of the ROC Securities Exchanges on which the Company's Shares are traded, no more than half of the total number of Directors can have a spousal relationship or family relationship within the second degree of kinship (as defined in the Applicable Public Company Rules) with any other Directors.
64. In the event that the Company convenes and holds a general meeting for the election of Directors and any of the Directors elected does not meet the requirements provided in Article 63 hereof, the non-qualifying Director(s) who was elected with the least number of votes shall be deemed to have vacated his/her/its office of Director, to the extent necessary to meet the requirements provided for in Article 63 hereof. Any person who is currently a Director but is in violation of the aforementioned requirements in Article 63 shall immediately upon being aware, or being made aware, of his violation of Article 63 vacate his/her/its office of Director.
65. So long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, unless otherwise permitted under the Applicable Public Company Rules, there shall be at least three (3) Independent Directors, and the total number of Independent Directors shall not be less than one-fifth of the total number of Directors. To the extent required by the Applicable Public Company Rules, at least one of the Independent Directors shall be domiciled in the ROC and at least one of the same shall have accounting or financial expertise.
66. Independent Directors shall have professional knowledge and shall maintain independence within the scope of their duties as Independent Directors of the Company, and shall not have any direct or indirect interests in the Company. The professional qualifications, restrictions on shareholdings, restrictions as to concurrent positions or engagements and assessment of independence with respect to Independent Directors shall be governed by the Applicable Public Company Rules.
67. The Board may determine the remuneration (including any bonus) paid to the Directors (including the Independent Directors), upon the recommendation by the Remuneration Committee so long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchanges. Factors which shall be considered when determining the remuneration paid to each Director shall include, without limitation, the extent and value of the services provided for the management of the Company, the operating performance of the Company, and the industry-wide compensation levels and practices. The Directors shall also be entitled to be paid their travel, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by them in going to, attending and returning from meetings of the Board, or any committee of the Board, or general meetings of the Company, or otherwise in connection with the business of the Company, or to receive a fixed allowance in respect thereof as may be determined by the Board from time to time, or a combination partly of one such method and partly the other.
68. A Director (other than an Independent Director) may hold any other office or place of profit with the Company in conjunction with his office of Director. However, such Director is required to disclose and explain his proposed appointment to such other office or place of profit, and the nature and extent of his interests to the Members at a general meeting, and is required to obtain prior approval from the Members by a Supermajority Resolution at the general meeting.

69. Where a government agency or an incorporated entity is a Member, and such government agency or entity has been elected to the Board, it shall appoint an individual as its duly authorised representative for the purpose of representing it at meetings of the Board or with respect to signing of consents or otherwise. Such representative may be replaced at any time and from time to time by the said government agency or incorporated entity at its sole discretion.

ELECTION AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

70. The election of Directors (including Independent Directors) shall adopt the candidate nomination mechanism which is in compliance with the Applicable Public Company Rules. The Members shall respectively elect the Independent Directors and Directors (other than Independent Directors) from separate list of candidates.
71. (a) Directors (including Independent Directors) shall be elected pursuant to a cumulative voting mechanism pursuant to a poll vote, where the total number of votes exercisable by any Member shall be the product of the number of Shares held by such Member and the number of Directors to be elected ("Special Ballot Votes"), and the total number of Special Ballot Votes cast by any Member may, at the sole discretion of the Member, be consolidated for election of one candidate for directorship or may be split for the election of several candidates for directorship, as specified in the voting paper by the relevant Member. The candidates who receive the most votes from the Members pursuant to this Article shall be elected as Directors.
- (b) Prior to any election or appointment of a Director pursuant to these Articles, such candidate of Director shall deliver a written confirmation to the Company indicating his/her willingness to serve as a Director if he/she is elected or appointed. Within fifteen (15) days after the election of Directors, an elected Director shall execute and deliver a letter of consent to the Company, the form of which shall be prescribed by the Company, notifying his/her acceptance of serving as a Director of the Company and of observing duties which may be set forth in such letter of consent.
- (c) Directors shall hold office only until the general meeting at which such Director is required by the Applicable Public Company Rules to retire and seek re-election.
72. If the number of Independent Directors is less than or falls below three (3) due to vacation of office of such Independent Directors for any reason, the Company shall elect new Independent Directors at the next following general meeting. If the office of all of the Independent Directors have become vacant, the Board shall convene, within sixty (60) days of vacancy of the last Independent Director, a general meeting of Members to elect new Independent Directors to fill the vacancies.
73. If the number of Directors is less than or falls below seven (7) for any reason, the Company shall elect new Director(s) at the next following general meeting. When the number of vacancies in the Board is equal to or more than one third of the maximum size of the Board as set out in Article 62 above, the remaining Directors shall convene, within the next sixty (60) days therefrom, a general meeting of Members to elect new Directors to fill in the vacancies.
74. The Company may from time to time by Supermajority Resolution remove any Director from his/her office, whether or not appointing another in his/her stead.
75. Subject to all applicable laws, where a Director has, in the course of performing his/her duties, committed any act resulting in material damage to the Company or committed a violation of applicable laws, regulations, and/or these Articles, and a Supermajority Resolution at a general meeting to approve his/her removal was put forth but failed to pass, any one or more

Members holding three percent (3%) or more of the total issued Shares may, within thirty (30) days after the said general meeting, institute a legal proceeding in a court of competent jurisdiction for an order to remove such Director provided that such Member(s) hold three percent (3%) or more of the total issued Shares as at the date of the institution of such legal proceedings to remove such Director. The Taipei District Court, ROC, may be the court of first instance for this matter. The office of such Director shall ipso facto be vacated with effect from the date such order of court is obtained.

DIRECTOR'S PROXY

76. If a Director is unable to attend a meeting of the Board because of absence from Taiwan, illness or otherwise, such Director may appoint another Director as his proxy to attend and to vote on his behalf at the meeting, in which event the presence and vote of the proxy shall be deemed to be that of the Director. The appointing Director shall, in each instance, issue a written proxy and state therein the manner in which his proxy is to vote in respect of the business to be discussed at that meeting, and such written proxy shall be lodged with the Board at the Registered Office or at such other place as is specified in the notice convening the Board meeting at any time before that meeting. A Director may only act as the proxy of one Director.
77. A Director residing in a foreign country other than ROC may appoint in writing a Member residing in ROC as his/her proxy to attend the meeting of the Board on a regular basis, provided that the relevant Taiwan authority is notified of and approves such appointment of the proxy (or the change thereof).

POWERS AND DUTIES OF DIRECTORS

78. (a) Subject to the Applicable Public Company Rules, the Board shall manage and conduct the business of the Company in compliance with applicable laws and generally accepted rules of commercial ethics, and may adopt any measure which may improve performance of the Company's corporate social responsibility or public interests. The Board may pay all expenses incurred in promoting, registering and setting up the Company, and may exercise all such powers of the Company as are not, for the time being, by the Statute, these Articles, any applicable regulations or by any resolutions passed by the Company in general meeting, required to be exercised by the Company in general meeting.
- (b) Subject to the Statute, any Director shall owe fiduciary duties to the Company and such fiduciary obligations shall include but not limited to the observance of general standards of loyalty, good faith and the avoidance of a conflict of duty and interest. If any Director breached the aforesaid fiduciary duties, subject to the Cayman Islands law, such Director shall be held liable for any damages therefrom. Subject to the Statute, the Members may by way of an Ordinary Resolution request a Director to disgorge the gains from his breach of the duty of loyalty and the duty to exercise fiduciary cares.
- (c) If a Director, during his conduct of the business of the Company, caused damages to other third parties by violating applicable laws, such Directors shall, subject to all applicable laws, be jointly liable to such damaged third parties.
- (d) In the event of a Merger, Consolidation, Acquisition or Spin-off (collectively, "M&A Transaction"), the Board of Directors shall, in the course of conducting the M&A Transaction, in the best interest of the Company, fulfill its duty of care. Subject to the Statute, any Director involved in the decision-making for an M&A Transaction shall be liable for any damage to the Company as a result of the Board's breach of the Applicable Public Company Rules, these Articles or the resolution of the general meeting approving the M&A Transaction; provided, however, that upon producing sufficient evidence of minutes or written statement concerning his/her/its disagreement, the Director may be exempted from the liability.
79. The Board may from time to time and at any time by powers of attorney appoint any company, firm, person or body of persons, whether nominated directly or indirectly by the Board, to be the attorney or attorneys of the Company for such purpose and with such powers, authorities and discretions (not exceeding those vested in or exercisable by the Board under these Articles) and for such period and subject to such conditions as the Board may think fit, and any such powers of attorney may contain such provisions for the protection and convenience of persons dealing with any such attorneys as the Board may think fit and may also authorise any such attorney to delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions vested in him/her.

80. All cheques, promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments and all receipts for monies paid to the Company shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed or otherwise executed as the case may be in such manner as the Board shall from time to time by resolution determine.
81. The Board shall cause minutes to be duly entered in books provided for the purpose of:
- (a) all appointments of officers made by the Board;
 - (b) the names of the Directors (including those represented thereat by proxy) present at each meeting of the Board and of any committee of the Board;
 - (c) all resolutions and proceedings at all meetings of the Company and of the Board and of committees of the Board.
82. Subject to all applicable laws, the Applicable Public Company Rules, these Articles, and any internal regulation governing the lending of capital, endorsement, guarantees, and acquisition and disposition of assets which may be adopted by the Company by an Ordinary Resolution at general meetings, the Board may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow money and to mortgage or charge its undertaking, property and assets (present and future) and uncalled capital or any part thereof and to issue other securities whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Company or of any third party, and to stand surety for or to guarantee, support or secure the performance of all or any of the obligations of any person, firm or company whether or not related or affiliated to the Company in any manner.

MANAGEMENT

83. Subject to all applicable laws and these Articles, the Board may from time to time manage the affairs of the Company in such manner as they shall think fit.

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

84. Unanimous written resolutions signed by all Directors shall have the same effect as if such resolutions were passed at duly convened meetings of the Board, and all such resolutions shall be described as "Written Directors' Resolutions" and shall be recorded in the Company's minute book. Any such resolution may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one or more Directors. However, so long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchanges, the Board must meet together for the despatch of business. The Board may convene, adjourn and otherwise regulate its meetings as it thinks fit. Unless otherwise provided in these Articles, a resolution put to the vote at any meeting of the Board shall be decided by a majority of votes of the Directors present at that Board meeting at which there is a quorum. In case of an equality of votes, the resolution shall fail.
85. (a) Subject to paragraph (b) of this Article, meetings of the Board may be summoned in accordance with such rules and procedures for meetings of the Board as may be adopted from time to time by the Board.

- (b) A meeting of the Board shall be summoned by at least seven (7) days' notice in writing to all Directors, and the notice shall set forth the general nature of the business to be considered. However, a meeting of the Board may be summoned at any time if there is any emergency, provided that notice is waived by all the Directors either at, before or after the meeting is held. If notice of a meeting of the Board is given in person, by cable, telex, facsimile, or electronic messages, the same shall be deemed to have been given on the day it is delivered, sent or transmitted to each of the Directors.
86. (a) A Director shall attend meetings of the Board in person or by proxy in accordance with these Articles.
- (b) Unless otherwise provided in these Articles, the quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the Board shall be more than one-half of the number of the Directors in office as at the date of the meeting, PROVIDED ALWAYS that if there shall at any time be only a sole Director the quorum shall be one. For the purposes of this Article, a proxy appointed by a Director shall be counted in a quorum at a meeting at which the Director appointing him/her is not present.
- (c) When the following resolutions put to the vote at any meeting of the Board, the quorum required shall be more than two-thirds of the number of Directors: (i) matters described in Article 38 (c) herein; (ii) any issuance, allotment, or placement of new Shares; (iii) any issuance of debenture, bonds, or any other type of debt securities; (iv) any plan of declaration of dividends and/or bonus; and (v) election and removal of the Chairman of the Board described in Article 88 herein.
87. The Board may act and pass or adopt resolutions notwithstanding any vacancy in its number.
88. The Board shall elect a chairman of the Board and determine the period for which he/she is to hold office. The chairman of the Board shall be elected by and among the Directors by a majority vote at a meeting of the Board at which two-thirds or more of the number of Directors in office as at the date of the meeting are present. The chairman of the Board shall take the chair at meeting of the Board, however if no such chairman is elected, or if at any meeting the chairman is not present, the Directors present may choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting. The chairman of the Board may be removed by a majority vote of more than two-thirds of the attending Directors at a meeting of the Board at which two-thirds or more of the number of Directors in office as at the date of the meeting are present, PROVIDED that the chairman being so removed by the Board shall remain as a Director of the Company notwithstanding his/her removal as chairman of the Board.
89. A Director who is directly or indirectly interested in a contract or proposed contract or arrangement with the Company shall declare the nature of such interest as required by law. In an M&A Transaction effected by the Company, a Director who has a personal interest in such transaction shall explain at the Board meeting and the general meeting the essential contents of such personal interest and the cause of his/her/its approval or dissent to the resolution of such M&A Transaction. Under the circumstances of the preceding paragraph, the Company shall specify the essential contents of the director's personal interest and the reason of approval or dissent to the resolution of merger/consolidation or acquisition in the notice to convene a meeting of Members; the essential contents may be posted on the website designated by the competent authority of ROC or the Company, and the address of such website shall be indicated in the above notice. A Director who has a personal interest in the matter under discussion at a meeting of the Board, which conflicts with and may harm the interests of the Company, shall neither vote nor exercise voting rights on behalf of another Director at the relevant meeting; the votes cast by such Director who is prohibited from voting or exercising any voting right as prescribed above shall not be counted in the number of votes of Directors present at that meeting of the Board, but an interested Director may be counted towards the quorum of the meeting. So long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, if the spouse or anyone having a family relationship within the second degree of kinship (as defined in the Applicable Public Company Rules) of a Director, or a company being controlled by or subordinate to a Director is interested in the matter under discussion at the such meeting, such relationship shall be deemed as that Director's personal interest in such matter.

90. The Board may delegate any of their powers to committees consisting of such member or members of the Board as they think fit; any committee so formed shall in the exercise of the powers so delegated conform to any regulations and directions that may be imposed on it by the Board.
91. A committee of the Board may meet and adjourn as it thinks proper. Any resolution put to the vote at any committee meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present, and in the case of an equality of votes the resolution shall fail. The meetings and proceedings of any committee shall be governed by the provisions contained in these Articles for regulating the meetings and proceedings of the Board to the extent that the same are applicable and are not superseded by any regulations or directions imposed by the Board under the last preceding Article.
92. All acts done by any meeting of the Board or of a committee of Board shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any Director, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and qualified to be a Director as the case may be.
93. Members of the Board or of any committee thereof may participate in a meeting of the Board or of such committee by means of videoconference or other electronic communication facilities whereby all persons participating in the meeting can see and hear each other simultaneously and instantaneously, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this provision shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

DUTY OF THE BOARD TO ADVISE IN A TENDER OFFER

94. So long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, the Board shall, within seven (7) days after receipt by the Company or by its litigation and non-litigation agent appointed pursuant to Applicable Public Company Rules of a copy of (i) a tender offer application to purchase Shares, and (ii) relevant documents, shall resolve to recommend to the Members whether to accept or to reject the tender offer and make a public announcement of the following in accordance with the Applicable Public Company Rules:
 - (a) the type and number of Shares held by the Directors and each Member holding more than ten percent (10%) of the total issued Shares in their own names or in the names of other persons;
 - (b) the recommendation made to the Members on such tender offer, setting forth the names of the Directors who abstained or objected to the tender offer and the reason(s) therefor;
 - (c) whether or not there are any material changes to the financial condition of the Company after the publication of the latest financial report and an explanation of the change(s) (if any); and
 - (d) the type, number and amount of the shares in the tender offeror (if the tender offeror is a company or corporation) or its affiliates held by the Directors and the Members holding more than ten percent (10%) of the total issued Shares in their own names or in the name of other persons.

VACATION OF OFFICE OF DIRECTOR AND DISQUALIFICATION OF A DIRECTOR

95. The office of a Director shall be vacated:
 - (a) if he/she resigns his/her office by notice in writing to the Company;

- (b) if he/she is removed from office in accordance with these Articles;
- (c) if he/she dies, becomes bankrupt, is ruled by a court with competent jurisdiction to start a liquidation proceeding, or makes any arrangement or composition with his/her creditors generally;
- (d) if an order is made by any competent court or official on the grounds that he/she is or will be suffering from lunacy, mental disorder or is otherwise incapable of, or need assistance in, managing his/her affairs; or his/her legal capacity is restricted according to the applicable laws;
- (e) if he/she has committed an offence as specified in the ROC statute of prevention of organizational crimes or similar legislations in other jurisdictions, or subsequently is adjudicated guilty by a final judgment and he/she has not started serving the sentence, has not completed serving the sentence, or five (5) years have not elapsed since his/her completion of serving the sentence, expiration of the probation, or pardon;
- (f) if he/she has committed an offence involving fraud, breach of trust or misappropriation, or subsequently sentenced to imprisonment for a term of more than one (1) year in any jurisdiction, and he/she has not started serving the sentence, has not completed serving the sentence, or two (2) years have not elapsed since his/her completion of serving the sentence, expiration of the probation, or pardon;
- (g) if he/she has been adjudicated guilty by a final judgment for an offence as specified in the ROC Anti-corruption Act, and he/she has not started serving the sentence, has not completed serving the sentence, or two (2) years have not elapsed since his/her completion of serving the sentence, expiration of the probation, or pardon;
- (h) if he/she has been blacklisted by the Taiwan Clearing House due to default on negotiable instruments, and the term of such sanction has not expired yet; or
- (i) In accordance with Articles 64 or 75;

Where any of the events described in this Article 95 (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), and (h) applies to or occurs in relation to a candidate for the office of Director, such candidate shall immediately be disqualified and ceases to be eligible to be considered for election to the office of Director. Where a Director who is also the chairman of the Board is removed from office as Director or his office as Director is vacated pursuant to this Article 95, the office of chairman of the Board shall also be automatically vacated.

- 95.1 (a) So long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, if, during the term of office, a director transfers his shareholding such that he holds less than one half of the Shares he held as at the date of his appointment according to the Register of Members, the director shall, ipso facto, be automatically discharged from office.
- (b) So long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, a director's appointment shall not become effective in the following circumstances:
- (i) if such director transfers his Shares such that he holds less than one half of the Shares he held as at the date on which his appointment is approved according to the Register of Members, but prior to the commencement of the term of his appointment becoming effective, if applicable; or
 - (ii) if such director transfers his Shares such that he holds less than one half of the Shares he held as at the date on which his appointment is approved according to the Register of Members during the transfer prohibition period of this Article 13.

Any breach of Article 95.1(b) shall cause the appointment of any proposed director to be, ipso facto, void.

(c) The preceding subparagraphs (a) and (b) of this Article 95.1 do not apply when the Director involved is an Independent Director.

SEAL AND AUTHENTICATION OF DOCUMENTS

96. (a) The Company may, if the Board so determine, have a Seal in such form as determined by the Board, which Seal shall, subject to paragraph (c) hereof, only be used by the authority of the Board or of a committee of the Board authorised by the Board and every instrument to which the Seal has been affixed shall be signed by a person who shall be either a Director or the Secretary or such other person authorised for this purpose by the Board or a committee of the Board.
- (b) The Board may adopt for use in any place or places outside the Cayman Islands a duplicate Seal or Seals each of which shall be a facsimile of the common seal of the Company and, if the Board so determine, with the addition on its face of the name of every place where it is to be used.
- (c) Any Director or the Secretary or other person appointed by the Board for the purpose may authenticate any documents affecting the constitution of the Company and any resolution passed by the Company or the Board or any committee, and any books, records, documents and accounts relating to the business of the Company, and to certify copies thereof or extracts therefrom as true copies or extracts; and if any books, records, documents or accounts are kept elsewhere than at the Registered Office or the head office of the Company, the local manager or other officer of the Company having the custody thereof shall be deemed to be a person so appointed by the Board. A document purporting to be a document so authenticated or a copy of a resolution, or an extract from the minutes of a meeting, of the Company or of the Board or any local board or committee, or of any books, records, documents or accounts or extracts therefrom as aforesaid, and which is certified as aforesaid, shall be conclusive evidence in favour of all persons dealing with the Company upon the faith thereof that such resolution has been duly passed or, as the case may be, that any minute so extracted is a true and accurate record of proceedings at a duly constituted meeting or, as the case may be, that the copies of such books, records, documents or accounts were true copies of their originals or as the case may be, the extracts of such books, records, documents or accounts are true and accurate records of the books, records, documents or accounts from which they were extracted.

OFFICERS

97. (a) The Board may from time to time appoint officers and/or managers as the Board considers necessary, for such term, at such remuneration, to perform such duties, subject to such other conditions or restrictions or to such provisions as to disqualification and removal as the Board from time to time prescribe. Article 78 (b) and (c) shall be applied mutatis mutandis to an officer's duties and liabilities to the Company and other third parties.
- (b) So long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange, the Company shall maintain a litigation and non-litigation agent appointed by the Board by way of a resolution passed by a simple majority of the Directors at a duly convened meeting of the Board with the necessary quorum, and shall report the appointment of the litigation and non-litigation agent or any change thereof to the FSC in accordance with the Applicable Public Company Rules. The litigation and non-litigation agent shall have residence within the ROC and shall be the responsible person of the Company within the ROC (as such term is defined under the Securities and Exchange Act of the ROC).

DIVIDENDS, DISTRIBUTIONS AND RESERVE

98. (a) Unless otherwise provided by the Statute, these Articles, the Applicable Public Company Rules, or any direction of the Company in general meetings, the Company may by way of a resolution of a majority of the Directors present at a meeting attended by two-thirds or more of the total number of the Directors, from time to time declare dividends and distributions to Members and authorise payment of the same out of the funds of the Company lawfully available therefor. The Directors shall report the declaration of dividends and distributions at the annual general meetings.
- (b) Subject to the rights of persons, if any, entitled to Shares with special rights as to dividends or distributions, if dividends or distributions are to be declared on a Class of Shares such dividends or distributions shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the Shares of such Class issued on the record date for such dividend or distribution as determined in accordance with these Articles.
99. The Board may, before determining the amount of dividends or distributions, set aside such sums as it thinks proper as a reserve or reserves which shall at the discretion of the Board, be applicable for any purpose of the Company and pending such application may, at the like discretion, be employed in the business of the Company.
100. No dividend or distribution shall be payable except out of the profits of the Company or from any reserve set aside from profits, or out of the share premium account of the Company, or as otherwise permitted by the Statute.
101. (a) The Company shall set aside no more than three percent (3%) of its annual profits (which means the pre-tax profits not including the amount of the compensation to employees and Directors) as compensation to employees of the Company, and set aside no more than three percent (3%) of its annual profits as compensation to Directors, provided however that the Company shall first offset its losses in previous years that have not been previously offset. The distribution of compensation to employees may be made by way of cash or Shares, which may be distributed under incentive programs approved pursuant to Article 10(a) above. The employees may include certain employees of the Subsidiaries who meet the conditions prescribed by the Company. The distribution of compensation to employees shall be approved by a majority of the Directors present at a meeting attended by two-thirds or more of the total number of the Directors and shall be reported to the Members at the general meeting. The distribution of compensation to the Directors shall only be made by way of cash. A Director who also serves as an executive officer of the Company and/or its Subsidiaries may receive a compensation in his capacity as a Director and a compensation in his capacity as an employee.
- (b) Where based on the Company's final accounts in respect of a current year, when the Company proposes to make profit distribution, such distribution shall be calculated based on the after-tax net profit of that current fiscal year, and shall be distributable only after (i) covering accumulated losses (including any adjustment to the retained earnings), (ii) setting aside a sum for any capital reserve pursuant to these Articles, (iii) setting aside a sum ten percent (10%) for any capital reserve pursuant to the Applicable Public Company Rules (the "APCR Reserve"), unless and until the accumulated amount of the APCR Reserve equals to the total paid-up capital of the Company, and (iv) setting aside a sum for an additional special reserve in compliance with the requirements promulgated by applicable ROC authorities (including, but not limited to, the FSC or any applicable ROC Securities Exchange) so long as the Shares are listed on any ROC Securities Exchange. The balance of the after-tax net profit in the current fiscal year remaining after all the foregoing deduction shall hereinafter be referred to as the "Distributable Net Profit of the Current Year." Dividends may be declared and paid out of the Distributable Net Profit of the Current Year and any undistributed retained profit accrued from prior years (together, the "Accumulated Distributable Net Profit"). The Accumulated Distributable Net Profit is available for distribution to the Members as cash dividend or may be used to pay up any bonus shares to be issued to the Members. The dividends as proposed for declaration in such plan shall not be less than five (5) percent of the Distributable Net Profit of the Current Year.

- (c) No unpaid dividend, distribution or other monies payable by the Company shall bear interest against the Company.
102. Any dividend, distribution, interest or other monies payable in cash to the holder of Shares may be paid by way of telegraphic transfer or electronic transfer or remittance or direct crediting to the bank account of such holder of Shares as he/she/it may designate and notified to the Company, or cheque or warrant sent through the post addressed to the holder at his/her/its registered address, or, in the case of joint holders, to the holder who is first named in the Register of Members or to such person and to such address as such holder or joint holders may in writing direct, at the risk of the person entitled to such dividend, distribution, interest or other monies. Every such cheque or warrant shall be made payable or property distributable to the order of the person to whom it is sent. Anyone of two or more joint holders may give effectual receipts for any dividends, bonuses, or other monies payable in respect of the Share held by them as joint holders. Payment of the cheque or warrant by the bank on which it is drawn shall constitute good discharge to the Company notwithstanding that it may subsequently appear that the same has been stolen or than any endorsement thereon has been forged.
103. (a) Subject to Article 33, the Company may upon the recommendation of the Board, resolve by way of a Supermajority Resolution that such dividend be satisfied in part in the form of an allotment and issue of new Shares credited as fully paid without offering any right to Members to elect to receive such dividend in cash in lieu of such allotment. In such case, the basis of any such allotment shall be determined by the Board, and the Board shall prepare a plan of declaration of dividends and/or distribution and such plan shall be submitted to the Members for approval at a general meeting by Supermajority Resolution.
- (b) Subject to Article 33, the Company may declare and pay cash dividends from Accumulated Distributable Net Profit, or make cash distribution from the APCR Reserve, upon a resolution of a majority of the Directors present at a meeting attended by two-thirds or more of the total number of the Directors.
- (c) The Board may do all acts and things considered necessary or expedient to give effect to any capitalisation pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this Article with full power to the Board to make such provisions as it thinks fit in the case of Shares becoming distributable in fractions (including provisions whereby, in whole or in part, fractional entitlements are aggregated and sold and the net proceeds distributed to those entitled, or are disregarded or rounded up or down or whereby the benefit of fractional entitlements accrues to the Company rather than to the Members concerned), and no Members who will be affected thereby shall be, and they shall be deemed not to be, a separate Class of Members by reason only of the exercise of this power. The Board may authorise any person to enter into on behalf of all Members interested, an agreement with the Company providing for such capitalisation and matters incidental thereto and any agreement made pursuant to such authority shall be effective and binding on all concerned.
- (d) The Board may on any occasion determine that the allotment of Shares under paragraph (a) of this Article shall not be made available or made to any Members with registered addresses in any territory where in the absence of a registration statement or other special formalities the allotment of Shares would or might be unlawful or impracticable or the legality or practicability of which may be time consuming or expensive to ascertain whether in absolute terms or in relation to the value of the holding of Shares of the Members concerned, and in such event the provisions aforesaid shall be read and construed subject to such determination and no Member who may be affected by any such determination shall be, and they shall be deemed not to be, a separate Class of Members for any purposes whatsoever.

REMUNERATION COMMITTEE

104. The Board shall establish a committee of the Board known as the “Remuneration Committee” in accordance with the Applicable Public Company Rules, including the Regulations Governing Establishment and Operation of Remuneration Committees of Companies Listed in Taiwan Stock Exchange and the GreTai Securities Market. The Board shall adopt regulations governing the operation of the Remuneration Committee in accordance with the Applicable Public Company Rules.

CAPITALISATION

105. (a) Subject to the Statute, Applicable Public Company Rules and these Articles, the Company may upon the recommendation of the Board by way of a Supermajority Resolution in a general meeting authorise the Board to capitalise any sum standing to the credit of any of the Company's reserve accounts which are available for distribution (including share premium account and capital redemption reserve defined in the Statute) or any distributable profits not required for the payment or provision of dividend on any Shares with preferential right to dividends, by appropriating such sum to Members on the Register of Members at the close of business on the date of the relevant resolution (or such other date as may be specified therein or determined as provided therein) in the proportions in which such sum would have been divisible amongst them had the same been a distribution of profits by way of dividend and to apply such sum on their behalf in paying up in full unissued Shares for allotment and distribution, credited as fully paid up to and amongst such Members in the proportion aforesaid.
- (b) Subject to the Statute, whenever such a resolution as aforesaid shall have been passed, the Board shall make all appropriations and applications of the reserves or profits resolved to be capitalised thereby, and attend to all allotments and issuance of fully paid Shares and generally shall do all acts and things required to give effect thereto. For the purpose of giving effect to any resolution under this Article, the Board may settle any difficulty which may arise in regard to any distribution under this Article as it thinks fit, and in particular may disregard fractional entitlements altogether or round the same up or down and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any Members in lieu of fractional entitlements or that fractions of such value as the Board may determine may be disregarded in order to adjust the rights of all parties or that fractional entitlements shall be aggregated and sold and the benefit shall accrue to the Company rather than to the Members concerned, and no Members who are affected thereby shall be deemed to be, and they shall be deemed not to be, a separate class of Members by reason only of the exercise of this power. The Board may authorise any person to enter on behalf of the persons entitled to participate in the distribution any agreement with the Company necessary or desirable for giving effect thereto and such appointment and any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding upon all concerned.
- (c) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any such agreement may provide for the acceptance by such persons of the Shares to be allotted, issued and distributed to them respectively in satisfaction of their claims in respect of the sum so capitalised. The Board may on any occasion determine that the allotment of Shares under this Article shall not be made available or made to any Members with registered addresses in any territory where in the absence of a registration statement or other special formalities the allotment of Shares would or might be unlawful or impracticable or the legality or practicability of which may be time consuming or expensive to ascertain whether in absolute terms or in relation to the value of the holding of Shares of the Member concerned, and in such event the provisions aforesaid shall be read and construed subject to such determination and no Member who may be affected by any such determination shall be, and they shall be deemed not to be, a separate class of Members for any purposes whatsoever.

BOOKS OF ACCOUNT AND RECORDS OF THE COMPANY

106. The Board shall cause proper books of account to be kept with respect to all transactions of the Company and in particular with respect to:

- (i) all sums of money received and expended by the Company and the matters in respect of which the receipt or expenditure takes place;
 - (ii) all sales and purchases of goods by the Company;
 - (iii) the assets and liabilities of the Company; and
 - (iv) all other matters required by Statute and which are necessary to give a true and fair view of the state of the Company's affairs and to show and explain its transactions.
107. (a) Proper books shall not be deemed to be kept with respect to the matters referred to in Article 106 if there are not kept such books of account as are necessary to give a true and fair view of the state of the Company's affairs and to explain its transactions.
- (b) The instruments of proxy, documents, forms/statements and information in electronic media prepared in accordance with these Articles and relevant rules and regulations shall be kept for at least six (6) years. However, if a Member institutes a lawsuit with respect to such instruments of proxy, documents, forms/statements and/or information mentioned herein, they shall be kept until the conclusion of the litigation if longer than six (6) years.

NOTICES

108. Notices shall be in writing and may be given by the Company to any Member either personally or by sending it by post, cable, telex or facsimile or by electronic means (including electronic mail) to him/her/it or to his/her/its address as shown in the Register of Members, such notice, if mailed, to be sent by airmail if the address be outside Taiwan.
109. (a) Where a notice is sent by post or airmail, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing, pre-paying and posting a letter containing the notice, and shall be deemed to have been effected on the expiration of sixty (60) hours after the letter containing the same is posted as aforesaid.
- (b) Where a notice is sent by cable, telex, facsimile or electronic means to such number or address supplied by the Member to the Company for giving of notice to him/her/it, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected on the day the same is sent as aforesaid.
110. A notice may be given by the Company to the joint holders of a Share by giving the notice to the joint holder first named in the Register of Members in respect of the Share.
111. Any notice or document delivered or sent in accordance with these Articles shall, notwithstanding that such Member is then deceased, bankrupt or wound up and whether or not the Company has notice of his death, bankruptcy or winding up, be deemed to have duly served or delivered in respect of any Shares registered in the name of such Member whether held solely or jointly with other persons by such Member, (unless his name shall at the time of service or delivery of the notice or document have been removed from the Register of Members as the holder of the Shares), and such service or delivery shall for all purposes of these Articles be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or document on his personal representatives and all persons interested (whether jointly with or as claiming through or under him) in any such Shares.
112. A notice may be given by the Company to the person or persons which the Company has been advised are entitled to a Share or Shares in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member by sending it through the post as aforesaid in a pre-paid letter addressed to them by name, or by the title of representatives of the deceased, or trustee of the bankrupt, or by any like description at the address supplied for that purpose by the persons claiming to be so entitled, or at the option of the Company by giving the notice in any manner in which the same might have been given if the death or bankruptcy had not occurred.
113. Notice of every general meeting shall be given in any manner hereinbefore authorised to:

- (a) every person shown as a Member in the Register of Members as of the record date for such general meeting except that in the case of joint holders, the notice shall be sufficient if given to the joint holder first named in the Register of Members; and
- (b) every person upon whom the ownership of a Share devolves by reason of his/her/it being a legal personal representative or a trustee in bankruptcy of a Member of record where the Member of record but for his/her death or his/her/its bankruptcy would be entitled to receive notice of the meeting.

Apart from the persons contemplated by paragraphs (a) and (b) above of this Article and apart from Directors and Independent Directors, no other person shall be entitled to receive notices of general meetings unless the Board determines otherwise in its sole discretion.

WINDING UP

- 114. If the Company shall be wound up the liquidator may, with the sanction of a Special Resolution of the Company and any other sanction required by the Statute, divide amongst the Members in specie or kind the whole or any part of the assets of the Company (whether they shall consist of property of the same kind or not) and may for such purpose set such value as he/she deems fair upon any property to be divided as aforesaid and may determine how such division shall be carried out as between the Members within the same Class or different Classes of Members. The liquidator may with the like sanction, vest the whole or any part of such assets in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the Members as the liquidator shall think fit, but so that no Member shall be compelled to accept any Shares or other securities whereon there is any liability.
- 115. Subject to any special rights, privileges or restrictions as to the distribution of available surplus assets on liquidation for the time being attached to any Class or Classes of Shares, (i) if the Company shall be wound up and the assets available for distribution amongst the Members shall be insufficient to repay the whole of the paid up capital, such assets shall be distributed so that, as nearly as may be, the losses shall be borne by the Members in proportion to the capital paid up, or which ought to have been paid up, at the commencement of the winding up on the Shares held by them respectively, and (ii) if the Company shall be wound up and the assets available for distribution amongst the Members shall be more than sufficient to repay the whole of the capital paid up at the commencement of the winding up, the excess shall be distributed pari passu amongst such Members in proportion to the amount paid up on the Shares held by them respectively.

AUDIT COMMITTEE

- 116. The Board shall establish a committee of Board known as the "Audit Committee". The Audit Committee shall comprise solely of Independent Directors and the number of committee members shall not be less than three (3). One of the Audit Committee members shall be appointed and designated as the convener to convene meetings of the Audit Committee from time to time and at least one (1) of the Audit Committee members shall have accounting or financial expertise. A valid resolution of the Audit Committee requires approval of one-half or more of all its members.
- 117. (a) Any of the following matters relating to the Company shall require the consent of one-half or more of all Audit Committee members by way of resolution and be submitted to the Board for approval:
 - (i) adoption of or amendment to an internal control system;
 - (ii) assessment of the effectiveness of the internal control system;

- (iii) adoption of or amendment to the handling procedures for financial or operational actions of material significance, such as acquisition or disposal of assets, derivatives trading, extension of monetary loans to others, or endorsements or guarantees for others;
- (iv) any matter relating to the personal interest of the Directors;
- (v) a transaction relating to a material asset of the Company or derivatives transaction;
- (vi) a material monetary loan, endorsement, or provision of guarantee;
- (vii) the offering, issuance, or private placement of any equity securities;
- (viii) the hiring or dismissal of an attesting certified public accountant, or the compensation given thereto;
- (ix) the appointment or discharge of a financial, accounting, or internal audit officer;
- (x) approval of annual and semi-annual financial reports; and
- (xi) any other matter so determined by the Company from time to time or required by any competent authority overseeing the Company.

With the exception of item (x), any other matter that has not been approved by one-half or more of all Audit Committee members may be undertaken upon the consent of two-thirds or more of the members of the Board by way of resolution at the Board meeting, and any resolution of the Audit Committee passed in respect of such matter shall be tabled at the Board meeting.

(b) Before any resolution of an M&A Transaction is approved by the Board, the Audit Committee shall review the fairness and reasonableness of the plan and transaction of the M&A Transaction, and then the Audit Committee shall present its findings to the Board and to the general meeting; provided that if Cayman Islands laws do not require a resolution of the M&A Transaction at the general meeting, the Company is not required to present its findings to the general meeting. When the Audit Committee reviews the matter, it shall seek opinion from an independent expert on the reasonableness of the share exchange ratio or distribution of cash or other assets. The review results by the Audit Committee and the opinion by an independent expert shall be delivered to each Shareholder along with the notice of the general meeting for the M&A Transaction, provided that if Cayman Islands laws do not require a resolution of the M&A Transaction at the general meeting, the Company shall report the M&A Transaction to the very next general meeting. If the Company announces the content of the documents, which are to be delivered to Shareholders under this paragraph, on the website designated by FSC and those documents are prepared at the venue of the general meeting by the Company, those documents shall be deemed as having been delivered to the Shareholders.

- 118. the Audit Committee shall supervise the execution of business operations of the Company, and may from time to time inspect the business and financial conditions of the Company, examine, make transcript of, or copy the books and documents relating to the Company, and request the Board or any officer to make reports in respect of the Company's affairs.
- 119. When performing its aforementioned duties, the Audit Committee may appoint an attorney or a certified public accountant to conduct the auditing on its behalf.
- 120. In case the Board or any Director commits any act and any member of the Audit Committee becomes aware of such act, when carrying out the business operations of the Company, in a manner violating the applicable laws and/or regulations, these Articles, or any resolution passed at a general meeting, the Audit Committee shall immediately demand that the Board or the violating Director, as the case may be, cease such act.

121. Member(s) continuously holding one percent (1%) or more of the total issued Shares for at least six (6) months may request the Audit Committee in writing to institute, on behalf of the Company, a court action against a Director. Subject to all applicable law, in case the Audit Committee fails to institute such action within thirty (30) days after having received the aforementioned request, then the Members filing the said request in accordance with this Article may institute the action on behalf of the Company in any court with competent jurisdiction, and nothing in these Articles shall be construed to prevent these Members from filing such action in the Taipei District Court, ROC.

INDEMNITY

122. (a) The Directors and officers for the time being of the Company and any trustee for the time being acting in relation to any of the affairs of the Company and their executors and administrators respectively (each of which persons being referred to in this Article as an "indemnified person") shall be indemnified and secured harmless out of the assets of the Company from and against all actions costs, charges, losses, damages and expenses which they or any of them, their or any of their executors or administrators, shall or may incur or sustain by reason of any act done, concurred in or omitted in or about the execution of their duty or supposed duty in their respective offices or trusts, and no such indemnified party shall be answerable for the acts, receipts, neglects or defaults of any other of them or for joining in any receipt for the sake of conformity or for the solvency or honesty of any banker or other persons with whom any monies or effects belonging to the Company may be lodged or deposited for safe custody or for any insufficiency or deficiency of any security upon which any monies of or belonging to the Company may be placed out on or invested, or for any other loss, misfortune or damage which may happen or arise in the execution of their respective offices or trust, or in or about thereto, PROVIDED THAT this indemnity shall not extend to any matter in respect of any fraud, dishonesty, recklessness, willful neglect or default which may attach to any of the said persons.
- (b) The Company may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of any Director or officer of the Company against any liability incurred by him/her/it in his/her/its capacity as a Director or officer of the Company or indemnifying such Director or officer in respect of any loss arising or liability attaching to him/her/it by virtue of any rule of law in respect of any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust of which the Director or officer may be guilty in relation to the Company or any subsidiary thereof.

FISCAL YEAR

123. Unless the Board otherwise determines, the fiscal year of the Company shall end on 31st December of each year and following the year of incorporation, the fiscal year shall begin on 1st January of each year.
